

CITY PAPER

Baltimore, MD
March 29, 2006

BALTIMORE WEEKLY

★ ★ ★ ★ ★
CRITIC'S CHOICE: COMEDY

THE REV. BOB LEVY AND YUCKO THE CLOWN APRIL 1

Fans of the new and unexpurgated satellite-radio version of the Howard Stern show probably don't need much coaxing to show up for tonight's gig featuring the vile, offensive comedy stylings of Yucko the Clown (pictured) and the mean-spirited Rev. Bob Levy, a comedian who's toiled in Comedy Club Hell for years and is now enjoying his greatest visibility and a new direction for his career thanks to winning the Stern show's "World's Meanest Listener Contest." But anyway, look, if you're thinking about taking in some comedy-club entertainment this evening, be warned: This ain't gonna be jokes about airplane food, OK? 8:30 and 10:30 P.M., Tracy's Comedy Club, 9306 Harford Road, Carey, (410) 665-8600, www.tracyscomedyclub.homestead.com, $15. (Joe MacYuck)

